

MFRC Volunteer Job Description

Program or Area:

Family Navigator Program

Position Title:

Blogger

Purpose of the Position:

FamilyNavigator.ca is a national, bilingual website that provides consistent information for each Canadian Forces Base in Canada. The blog featured on the website looking for a new writer!

We are looking for bloggers who may:

Have experience with a family member deploying, be new to the community or the military lifestyle, or who has a family member with special or complex needs.

Responsibilities and Activities:

Produce a monthly 200-400 word blog post related to the military lifestyle (ex. share personal joys, struggles and challenges associated with the military lifestyle .

Qualifications:

- Strong writing and editing skills
- Must have a passion for writing
- Self-motivated and able to meet deadlines
- Proficient in Microsoft Word and email communication

Training and Supervision to be provided:

The Family Navigator will provide any necessary training and guidance. The volunteer will receive a lot of independence on how to do the work.

Blog Posts will be submitted to the Family Navigator for review prior to being posted to the Family Navigator Website.

Evaluation:

Constructive feedback from the Family Navigator

Time Commitment:

Time may vary according to individual- one blog post (approximately 200-400 words) produced per month.

Location:

Blog Writer works from home

Benefits:

- This is a great volunteer experience to write for a web platform

- Ability to gain skills in public relations and communications
- A benefit of sharing views on the important subject with the community
- Ability to play a critical role in a fun, creative job

Who to Contact:

Ekaterina Gregory – Community Integration Coordinator
Ekaterina.Gregory@forces.gc.ca